PORT OF CORPUS CHRISTI SELECTS LT. TOM MYLETT AS ASSISTANT CHIEF OF POLICE AND SECURITY

(Corpus Christi, TX) --- The Port of Corpus Christi is proud to announce the selection of one its finest, Lt. Tom Mylett as Assistant Chief of Police and Security. Assistant Chief Mylett has been with the Port for four years and brings a distinguished career of military service with the U.S. Coast Guard and 23 year law enforcement career with the Corpus Christi Police Department prior to joining the port in May 2004.

“The Port family is proud to recognize one of its own with the promotion of Lt. Mylett to Assistant Chief of Police and Security. Assistant Chief Mylett brings a high level of professionalism and expertise to the position and we are fortunate to have in him in our organization,” said John LaRue, Executive Director of the Port of Corpus Christi.

Assistant Chief Mylett is a native of New York having graduated high school in 1973 then enlisting in the U.S. Coast Guard where he served for 8 years with tours and duties to include duty overseas, aboard ship, small boat search and rescue, oil pollution response/investigations before he was honorably discharged in 1981. Upon his discharge from the U.S. Coast Guard, Assistant Chief Mylett joined the Corpus Christi Police Department with assignments to include Patrol, Criminal Investigations, Warrants, Vice Undercover and Enforcement, Field Training Officer and Supervisor of Vice/Narcotics Night Operations Unit prior to his retirement in 2004.

Assistant Chief Mylett is a well-seasoned military and law enforcement veteran who is completing both the Sam Houston State University Police Leadership Command and College/Law Enforcement Management Institute of Texas programs. Assistant Chief Mylett and his wife Tara are the proud parents of a son who recently graduated with a Masters degree from Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi and an active daughter in middle school.
